OPEN ATELIER | Insight blocher partners

Lecture | Get-together

▶ As part of the CreativeDays Stuttgart 2019 there will be the chance to get an insight in one of the international creative agencies in Stuttgart.

Blocher partners designs within and beyond disciplines. Their holistic planning methods are accomplished by teaming up diverse experts, all working together transdisciplinary. Projects in Germany include the Hilton Garden Inn Hotel (Mannheim), in India the Goethe-Institute (Kolkata) and at the Philippines, the deluxe residential complex "Nature Terraces St. Elena", exemplifying that sustainable (green) architecture can be luxurious as well. The method to success: "Experience Design", focusing on the needs and motivation of people.

Lectures | Talk | Get-Together

2018 | Liveable Cities | German and Indian Perspectives | Smart and Sustainable Architecture

How will we live in the future? Where will we live ? How can we survive in the conurbations?

How smart does a city has to be? Which kind of challenges do we have to face in the cities? Which tasks can designers and architects undertake? What are things in common and what are the differences between the various cities?

These and other tasks will be presented by Rohan Shivkumar, architect, urban planner, krvi Institute from Mumbai, who will give a lecture on the challenges of the urban planning and sustainable thoughts and activities on architecture in India. Tobais Wallisser, architect, LAVA, from Stuttgart and Dita Leyh, architect, urban planner from the Insitute ISA, Stuttgart will present their experiences and international projects. A discussion and a get-together will round off the evening.

Creative Days Stuttgart - Design.Arts.Architecture.

Filmscreening| Discussion

»Nostalgia for the Future« is a film on Indian modernity, the making of the citizen and the architecture of the home. It looks at imaginations of homes across four examples of buildings made over the period of a century. These are Lukhshmi Vilas Palace in Baroda, Villa Shodhan in Ahmedabad, a private residence which represents the idea of domesticity, designed by Le Corbusier, Sabarmati Ashram in Ahmedabad and a public housing in post-independence Delhi. The film is a collaboration between film maker Avijit Mukul Kishore and architect Rohan Shivkumar, who will be present. 54 Min

This is an event of poonamdesigners which promotes with the international platform CreativeDays the exchange between Europe and India in design, arts, architecture and urban planning. This film event is a collaboration of poonamdesigners with Raumjournalist.
