Save the date: CreativeDays Stuttgart - Platform for Design.Arts. Architecture. Urbanism.
CreativeDays 2022 - »Wellbeing Design and Spaces«

The CreativeDays are finally taking place on their regular date from 15. - 21. Juli 2022:

poonamdesigners Studio presents the CreativeDays events on the topic »Wellbeing Design and Spaces« which will take place at different locations in Stuttgart.

CreativeDays Stuttgart is a platform to discuss design, architecture and urbanism through the lens of local and international thinkers and practitioners. It consists of a symposium and different events like Open Atelier, that explore design, arts, architecture and handicraft in Stuttgart.

This year the Open Atelier will take place at the company raumprobe, which will open the door for our guests to explore their material library with materials for health. At the symposium we will have outstanding lectures by international and local designers, architects, urban planners, thinkers. This years speakers Rahul Kadri, Partner and Principal Architect at IMK Architects and Christiane Sander, Head of Lighting at sbp, will talk about »Wellbeing Design and Spaces« and give an insight into their latest projects. We will discuss about current topics such as circular design, sustainable materials, architecture and smart cities. How can we create circular systems and facilitate it? Which materials are really sustainable? How do we define sustainability? Which kind of architecture and spaces promotes the wellbeing of people? How should we design human-centered spaces?

General informations

CreativeDays Stuttgart

poonamdesigners Studio

The interdisciplinary design studio poonamdesigners develops design concepts, creates textile- and product design, interior design, visual communication and installations. They work across disciplines, work in intercultural environment and use their experience for over 20 years to create innovative solutions. They design, question, develop, integrate with events, platforms, publications, design projects and strategies. They focus on sustainable design and work on solutions for wellbeing design and spaces for the people.

The design studio was founded by the designers Poonam Choudhry and Martin Bargiel in Stuttgart. Both have their diploma from the Stuttgart State Academy of Art and Design. Their work reflects the Indian roots of Poonam Choudhry and her profound qualification in design in Germany. Martin Bargiel is a graphic designer, who has also studied German philology. He teaches visual communication and media and brings his know-how about typography into the projects. Poonam Choudhry is a textile designer and implements her know-how about textiles, surfaces and colours into product-, interiordesign concepts and installations. She publishes regularly on design, society and architecture and is currently working on a book about the future of design, architecture and cities. Furthermore, she teaches at different universities about design and urban planning.
